

Volunteer - Grants Researcher - UK & Latin America

Location: Remote

Employment Type: Minimum 3 months commitment

Contract Type: Volunteer

Background

The Breteau Foundation (BF) aims to enable disadvantaged children to reach their full potential through the delivery of digital educational tools and training. The Foundation is currently operational in multiple countries across the globe and reaches over 30,000 children. We are looking for a Volunteer Grants Researcher who will be responsible for identifying key grants and partners in Latin America.

Key Responsibilities

This role will be critical for identifying grant and funding opportunities to expand the Foundation's programmes in the Latin America region. This will be a research based role that will require identifying grant partners and organisations aligned to our mission, vision and strategic goals for Latin America.

The responsibilities will include:

- Developing criteria for identifying grants and funding partners aligned to the Breteau Foundation's mission, vision and strategic goals for Latin America.
- Desk-based research that identifies key grants and funding partners to apply for per quarter.
- Strategic advice on developing grant applications and/or approaching funders.

Qualifications, Skills and Experience

The right candidate will need to be able to demonstrate their experience and skills relating to the responsibilities above. They will also be required to meet the relevant qualifications, skills and experience following:

- An ability to plan research in a methodical way, analyse results and present those findings.
- Experience in fundraising and grant applications for the Latin America region
- A general understanding of Latin America's non-profit and education sectors (preferable)
- Experience working in the NGO sector, preferably within education
- English and Spanish language skills

All volunteers are required to volunteer at the Foundation for a minimum of 3 months and complete a criminal record check. For this position, we are looking for a remote volunteer and who can commit to the equivalent of at least 1 hr/week.
